

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences Graduate Programs
 High Impact activities summary
 August 2019

	Criminal Justice	Contemporary Music	Management and Information Systems	Organizational Leadership
Learning community or some other formal program where groups of students take two or more classes together;	Not cohort driven	Not cohort driven	Not cohort driven	Course schedule is designed in a way that allows students to take core classes together.
Courses that included a community-based project (service-learning)	None required	None required	None required	None required
Work with a faculty member on a research project; Internship, co-op, field experience, student teaching, or clinical placement;	Internship experience required	Students work closely with faculty in their focus area(s).	Each student works with two faculty members during the final two terms (one from Business and one from CS) planning and implementing a professional project.	Each student works with a faculty member during the two-term sequence of the leadership action research project.
Study abroad	None required	None required; 25-50% of students in this program are international students.	None required; 30-60% of students in this program are international students.	None required
Culminating senior experience (capstone course, senior project or thesis, comprehensive exam, portfolio, etc.)	All students complete a 12-credit capstone research project.	Each student must complete a recital and one compact disc master recording.	All students must complete an 8-credit professional project.	All students must complete a 6-credit leadership action research project.