

Community College Advising Conference

September 16 • 9a.m. - 1p.m.

WOU Campus, ITC 211 • Lunch will be provided

Help your students become Computer Science and Information Systems majors at Western Oregon University

Make the transition to university an easy one for your students.

You'll learn about:

WOU's revamped CS and IS programs
Learning outcomes for the programs
Campus support for students
Related minors

You'll meet:

Computer Science and Information Systems faculty
Academic advisors
Your colleagues at other institutions
RSVP at wou.edu/cs/advisingconference
Questions? Email alvarados@wou.edu or call 503.838.8480.

Optional Wine Tour

Transportation provided, no host

1:20 p.m. - 2 p.m.	Johan Vineyards
2:15 p.m. - 3 p.m.	Eola Hills Winery
3:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.	Rogue Brewery, Chateau Rogue Tasting Room

Western Oregon University
Computer Science
programs highlights:

Courses taught by full time professors.

Small class sizes (20 to 35 students)

Supervised lab experiences

Achievable math requirements:
10 hours of discrete mathematics
No calculus requirement

Learning environment geared for student success.

Our goal is to help students succeed.

Emphasis on underrepresented students