

Elizabeth Oliver
elizabetholiver@eoni.com

Dedicated educator with extensive experience in writing assessment; developing curriculum in English composition, grammar, and research; and delivering educational excellence in secondary education. Experience managing a diverse student population while meeting learning objectives. Writes clearly and concisely, listens attentively, openly expresses ideas, analyzes issues, defines needs, develops strategies, meets deadlines.

Teaching Experience

Substitute teacher Sept. 2010 to present
Joseph Charter School Joseph, OR
Enterprise School District Enterprise, OR

- All grade levels all subjects

English teacher Sept. 1978 to June 2004
Enterprise School District Enterprise, OR
High School and Jr. High Language Arts school newspaper and magazine

2nd/3rd grade blend teacher Sept. 1977 to Aug. 1978
St. Andrews Community School Portland, OR

- All subjects

Other Directly Related Experience

- Tutor for jr. high and high school English and SAT prep 2005 – present
- Fishtrap, Inc. fellowship reader 1990- 2011
- Oregon Literary Arts fellowship reader 2008
- Edited My Life on Joseph Creek by Julie Kooch
ISBN-13: 978-0977393404 2004
- Developed and facilitated Writing Workshops for teachers in Wallowa and Union County 1995 - 2000
- Oregon Statewide Writing Assessment scorer 1995 – 1999
- Wrote Reading test questions for Oregon Statewide Assessment 1998 – 1999
- Writing tutor for Univ. of New Mexico football team spring term 1993

Education

Masters of Arts in Secondary Education

- English

Eastern Oregon University 1981

Bachelor of Science

- Major – Education
- Minor – English 1977

References

Dr. Jennifer Frentress Field Expert for School by Design jenniferfrentress3@gmail.com

Sherry Kilgore Principal Joseph Charter School sherry.kilgore@josephcharter.org

Rich Wandschneider Director The Alvin M. and Betty Josephy Library of Western History and Culture rich.wandschneider@gmail.com

