About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with over 40% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Music Department within the Creative Arts Division invites applications for Instructional Faculty positions to support our vibrant Music program. Responsibilities include teaching a variety of Music courses and may involve directing or supporting co-curricular Music activities. Depending on departmental needs, teaching assignments may also include courses in the General Education and/or Honors programs. In addition to instructional duties, faculty are expected to contribute service to the department and university and may engage in scholarship and/or professional development activities.
