About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with over 40% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The English Department houses the Literature, Writing, Language Arts, and Linguistics programs. Adjunct Faculty who teach will be assigned to courses based on their educational background and academic record. Adjunct faculty must be prepared to use WOU online resources through the WOU Portal: WOU-assigned email address, Canvas, Wolfweb, etc. They are also expected to collaborate with the English Department Head and/or the First Year Writing Coordinator and/or Literature faculty regarding curriculum, academic integrity, scheduling, and student and program success.
