Department: Accounting & Business Services
Salary Rate: $98,000 - $108,000

About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with over 40% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Associate Controller position plays a critical role in supporting the financial integrity and operational efficiency of the university. Reporting to the Controller, this position is responsible for advanced financial reporting, internal and external audit preparation, account reconciliations, and ensuring compliance with GASB, GAAP, and federal regulations. The role requires deep knowledge of governmental accounting, data analysis using SQL and COGNOS, and strong collaboration with institutional partners. In addition to core accounting responsibilities, the position oversees treasury functions including cash flow forecasting, investment analysis, and banking operations. This role serves as a liaison with the State Treasury and external financial institutions to safeguard university assets and optimize investment strategies. The incumbent will also lead institutional projects related to FOAPAL structure, year-end close coordination, and policy development.

This is a high-impact role requiring a strategic thinker with exceptional analytical skills, attention to detail, and the ability to lead financial processes across a dynamic and collaborative university environment.
