Recruitment #: F2537
Review Date: Open | Open until filled
Department: English/Humanities/CLAS
Salary Rate: Commensurate with experience and qualifications [CBA]

About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with over 40% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The First Year Writing Program is housed within the English department but is its own unit with a Coordinator who manages scheduling, curriculum, and professional development for the team of First Year Writing Instructional Faculty. Given the specific teaching assignments of the FYW team and emphasis on reading and responding to students' writing, these Instructional Faculty's 45 workload units (WLUs) will consist primarily of teaching for the 9-month academic year.
