

Director, Center for Professional Pathways

Recruitment #: S2555
Review Date: Open | Review begins 10/6/25
Department: Center for Professional Pathways
Salary Rate: $83,125 - $97,795

About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is a Hispanic Serving institution, with over 40% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Director of Center for Professional Pathways (CPP) provides leadership for the department to maintain and expand Western Oregon University's comprehensive career services and access to experiential learning (i.e. internships, volunteering). The director advances equity in access to social mobility and collaborates with academic departments to integrate career readiness in curriculum and programs, by developing content, training, standards and practices. The director is also responsible for the coordination of the National Student Exchange (NSE).
