Recruitment #: PF2511
Review Date: Ongoing | As needed
Department: Communications
Salary Rate: Commensurate with experience and qualifications [\[CBA\]](#)

About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is a Hispanic Serving institution, with over 40% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

Adjunct faculty members in the Department of Communication will be responsible for providing student-centered instruction in courses within their area of expertise. Primary responsibilities include designing and delivering course content, engaging students in both in-person and online modalities, and providing an inclusive and supportive learning environment for all students. The preferred candidates will be capable of teaching multiple courses within our course catalog, including courses that contribute to both the department and the general education curriculum.
