

Adjunct Faculty - Occupational Therapy

Recruitment #:	PF2604
Review Date:	Ongoing As needed
Department:	Occupational Therapy
Salary Rate:	Commensurate with experience and qualifications

About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with over 40% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

Adjunct faculty members in the Occupational Therapy Program will be responsible for teaching high-quality, learner-centered courses within the Occupational Therapy Doctorate Program. Topics may include occupational therapy theories, clinical conditions, evidence-based practice, human anatomy, movement analysis, or classes focused on specific clinical practice areas. Primary responsibilities include designing, delivering, and managing courses across multiple instructional modalities, while fostering an inclusive and supportive learning environment. Faculty are expected to demonstrate subject matter expertise, employ effective teaching approaches, and maintain professional standards in student engagement and course management.
