Questions? Contact Dr. Mark Henkels henkelm@wou.edu

With good planning and consultation with your academic advisor, students should be able to complete an online Political Science major at WOU. The Monmouth campus is a great place, but we know some students have work schedules, family obligations or other needs that prevent them from attending in-person campus classes.

Core Classes: All Political Science majors must complete these courses, so we made sure all are available online at least once every two years.

Here are the schedules for 2022-2023 and 2023-2024, for examples.

Note that often PS 201, 202, 203, and 204 can be taken online through community colleges.
