2 Richard Woodcock Education Center

College of Education

wou.edu/education

Our three divisions—Deaf Studies and Professional Studies, Education & Leadership, and Health & Exercise Science—prepare skilled professionals in the fields of early learning, teacher education, rehabilitation and mental health counseling, sign language and deaf culture, interpreting and interpreter education, health promotion, and exercise science.

3 Hamersly Library

library.wou.edu • libweb@wou.edu
503-838-8418 • 503-383-9681 (WOU1)
SM: woulibrary or woulibraryor

The library is a hub of intellectual and practical resources, both physical and virtual. Where's your perfect study spot? It might be the lively atmosphere and whiteboard tables in the first-floor Learning Commons, or perhaps the silence and great views on the quiet third floor. Or maybe it's the room you reserved for your weekly study group.

Use the computers, scanners, and printers in the building, or borrow a Chromebook, iPad, camera with accessories, and other equipment. Learn how to find and understand scholarly sources to support your academic projects. Forget paywall woes: we'll get that article you need.

4 Student Success Center

Center for Professional Pathways (CPP)

wou.edu/cpp • SSC 205 • 503-838-8432
SM: woucpp and wounationalstudentexchange

CPP provides resources to help students discover a well-suited major and career options, build a professional résumé, search for employment, identify an internship, engage in volunteerism, apply to get into graduate school, conduct informational interviews and network with employers, recruiters and alumni.

Get online access to career assessment tools: job, internship and volunteer opportunities. You'll find a variety of service and career-related links and relevant resources. We assist in:

- Experiential learning opportunities such as internships, job shadows, volunteer opportunities and employment
- Learning and applying skills for a successful job search or graduate/professional school admissions
- Realistic self-assessment of interests, values and skills
- Understanding of the connection between self-knowledge and career paths

Disability Access Services (DAS)

wou.edu/disabilityservices • das@wou.edu • SSC 105 • 503-838-8250

DAS serves students with documented disabilities who experience access barriers related to their disability impacts. We also work with other students on short-term accommodations for short-term disability impacts.

We approve and coordinate reasonable accommodations —on a case-by-case basis —to provide equal access to programs, classes, and services. Common disability-related accommodations may include alternative testing arrangements, alternative format reading materials, and more.

Student Enrichment Program (SEP)

wou.edu/sep • sep@wou.edu • SSC 109 • 503-838-8550 • SM: wou_sep

SEP is a federally-funded TRIO program that helps students who are first-generation (neither parent has completed a bachelor's degree), come from underrepresented financial backgrounds, or are eligible to receive services through WOU Disability Access Services. SEP helps students overcome barriers to higher education and achieve their academic goals by offering free academic support services including:

- Holistic advising
- Workshops and seminars focused on academic success, time management, financial literacy, study skills, stress management, graduation requirements, internship opportunities and preparation for graduate programs
- Tuition free First-Year Seminar Gen Ed Courses
- Access to the laptops and free printing in the TRIO/First Gen Center
- Chromebooks available for checkout

Student Success and Advising (SSA)

wou.edu/advising • advising@wou.edu • SSC 211 • 503-838-8428

SSA provides academic resources and support to all students at WOU. We are the primary advisors for pre-nursing and exploratory students (students exploring major options), but also provide support to students experiencing academic challenges and transfer students transitioning to WOU.

SSA also coordinates free peer tutoring services for introductory and core major and general education courses (excluding Mathematics, Writing, and Computer Science) as well as peer academic coaching for study strategies, note-taking, time management, and test-taking.

Teacher Prep Student Support Services (TP-SSS)

wou.edu/tpsss • SSC 109 • 503-838-8568 • SM: woutpsss

The TRIO Teacher Prep Student Support Services (TP-SSS) program at Western Oregon University is dedicated to empowering future educators by providing academic support, guidance with degree requirements, and resources to help students thrive on their journey to becoming K-12 teachers.

TP-SSS offers a range of services, including academic advising, financial literacy development, free First Year Seminar classes, and support for teacher licensure exams (ORELA). We provide ongoing advocacy and assistance tailored to the unique challenges our students face, ensuring they have the tools, encouragement, and support needed to succeed.

5 Lieuallen Administration

SM: westernoregonuniversity or WesternOregonU

Vice President for Student Affairs (VPSA)

wou.edu/student • ADM 101 • 503-838-8221
SM: wouvpsa

The VPSA provides various student support services, assistance, and referrals to all WOU students. We also assist students with study-away (domestic exchange) through the National Student Exchange Program.

Lieuallen Administration is also home to:

- Diversity, Equity and Inclusion
- Office of the President
- Human Resources
- Office of the Provost

Dean of Students and Office of Student Conduct

wou.edu/studentconduct • studentconduct@wou.edu • ADM 101 • 503-838-9318

The Dean of Students office provides support throughout the college journey—whether guidance is needed, a concern arises, or there's uncertainty about where to start, this office is a great first stop. The office also includes the Office of Student Conduct, which promotes a safe and respectful campus community.

WOLF Ride

wou.edu/wolfride • 503-428-7238 (call/text) •
SM: wolfridewou

WOLF Ride offers free and reliable shuttle service to WOU students during the evenings in the Monmouth-Independence area.
